PETITIONER'S (SUPPLEMENT REBUTTAL) TO THE U.S. ATTORNEY'S RESPONSE
TO THE PETITIONER'S WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS.

The United State's Attorney, has carefully and predictable interpreted the congress's 1952 INA, § 321, to fit their own criteria and agenda. (the deportation of aliens in a indiscriminate, malicious and in an abundantly prejudical manner).

Before we consider the precise wording of Section 321 (a) of the Immigration nationality act, it is most important we understand what the conjunction AND, means. Or in general what the defination of a conjunction is...See the American Heritage dictionary. At the same time please consider the meaning of the word OR, (and alternative, the second of two choices to be used in a given situtation to achieve an ultimate goal or purpose. In this case derivative citizenship.

Section 321 (a) of the INA reads as follows:

A child born outside the United States of alien parents, becomes a citizen of the U.S. upon the fullillment of the following conditions:

1. The naturalization of both parents; (OR) interpreted meaning...in the alternative that both parents do not naturalize the following other conditions will suffice for said child to obtain U.S. citizenship. See #s (4) & (5). The section does not state that numbers (2) & (3) of the act are necessary prerequisites for number (4) & (5) to be implemented for said child to attain his U.S. citizenship.
2. The manner in which numer (3) of the INA is written, left it open to serious varied conjecture, ambiguity and bigotry, by those who defend the republis of the United States.

Reference is made to the Application for Certificate of Citizenship, Form N-600, filed by you on or around May 16, 2001 under Section 321 of the Immigration and Nationality Act as amended.

Section 321 (a) of the Act determines in part that

A child born outside of the United States of alien parents ... becomes a citizen of the United States upon the fulfillment of the following conditions:

- (1) The naturalization of both parents; or
- (2) The naturalization of the surviving parent if one of the parents is deceased; or
- (3) The naturalization of the parent having legal custody of the child when there has been a legal separation of the parents or the naturalization of the mother if the child was born out of wedlock and the paternity of the child has not been established by legitimation; and
- (4) Such naturalization takes place while such child is under the age of eighteen years; and
- (5) Such child is residing in the United States pursuant to lawful admission for permanent residence at the time of the naturalization of the parent last naturalized ... or thereafter begins to reside permanently in the United States while under the age of eighteen years...

As amended, section 1431 provides that a child born outside of the United States automatically becomes a citizen of the United States when all of the following conditions have been fulfilled:

- (1) At least one parent of the child is a citizen of the United States, whether by birth or naturalization.
- (2) The child is under the age of eighteen years.
- (3) The child is residing in the United States in the legal and physical custody of the citizen parent pursuant to a lawful admission for permanent residence.

8 U.S.C. §1431.

The provisions of the Child Citizenship Act apply only to "individuals who satisfy the requirements of section 320 [§1431] or 322 [§1433] of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as in effect on [February 27, 2001]." Child Citizenship Act of 2000, §104.<sup>2</sup> Thus, <sup>1</sup> Although repealed on February 27, 2001, 8 U.S.C. §1432 remains in effect for aliens who fulfilled the conditions stated in that section before that date.

The amendments made by this title shall take effect 120 days after the date of the enactment of this Act and

3. The repealing of 8. USC § 1432 of the INA and the amending of section 1431 and 1433 also the implementation of the child citizenship ACT of 2000, SS 101-103, would to the prudent and thinking mind seem only logical in purpose as to construe in purpose the effect of past ACTS in history, such as the Magna Carta ACT, & the emancipation ACT of Lincoln's day, are legislative Acts to relieve the pain and suffering of the immediate time and people. And the most prudent branch of the U.S. Government to best interpret the laws passed by congress so that justice would be properly served across the board and equality be prevail for all that have suffered of from the previous inadecuacy of the past legislation of the 1952 congress INA ACT erroneous nonchalant dubious and ambiguous interpretation by lay lawyers of the day. That if left to their reasoning would have the nation thrown into a Vichy type regime as occurred in France in the 1940s when over 80,000 Jews were bitterly betrayed by their fellow country men deported to detention centers (Dracy & Auschwitz for example - today here in the U.S. they are called COUNTY JAILS, YORK, MONTGOMERY COUNTY, BERKS COUNTY AND THE LIKES). Over Half a million L.P.Rs. have been removed from the U.S. along with some U.S. Citizens a fact that is kept fro the eye of the public, but is a well known and documented occurence in the files of the INS. (not less we not mention CAMP OAKDALE).

Wherefore, based on the foregoing, the petitioner beseech, and respectfully ask this most Honorable Court to "SEMPER FI," and prudently consider the stakes at had and the pain and suffering of its' present residents and citizens. And be genuine and just in this matter of interpreting the laws as congress intended its' application to reaffirm that justice prevail for all that live within its' boarders, and not a select part of its' residents.
